GRH (Group Residential Housing): House of Charity has 101 beds available. In this program, the State of Minnesota provides room and board for low income individuals who meet GRH requirements. This can be both a short-term or long-term housing option, based on client needs and eligibility. Clients' participating in the Day by Day Program and who are in need of housing are invited to complete applications for this housing option.

VA beds: The Veterans Administration contracted with House of Charity to hold beds for Veterans experiencing homelessness. At the end of 2015, 14 beds were set aside and filled.

Altogether, the Transitional Housing programs provided housing to 356 individuals in 2015, with an average length of stay 155 days for the GRH clients.

Housing First: House of Charity began participating in the Housing First program through Hennepin County in August 2010. Housing First is a national best practice model. It operates on the premise that housing is a basic human right and that people experiencing homelessness have a much higher chance of overcoming barriers when they have a safe, stable place to live. The program seeks to place clients in affordable community housing and overlay supportive services.

Case Managers provide home visits once a week, providing guidance on being a good tenant and communicating with the landlord, as well as information on nutrition, cooking, budgeting and managing physical health issues and medications. Many Housing First participants are now enrolled in school or a training program so that they can secure better employment in the near future. House of Charity is working on placing people in geographic clusters to promote natural support groups of clients housed near each other.

To qualify for the program, participants must be long-term homeless or have a long-term disability. Clients receive a rent subsidy, passed through House of Charity, and supplemental nutrition supports. The result has been that previously hard-to-place clients, who often struggled to find housing and achieve self-sufficiency, are now stably housed and are able to attend school, gain employment, reunite with their families, and/or secure additional income. In 2015, Housing First served 141 clients.

Our program is built around the philosophy of responsibility and reflection. The services provide a safe place to build self-esteem, make positive changes, and learn to live a sober life. We offer both a men's and women's program. The women's program will use a unique curriculum to meet their special needs, including a trauma group that promotes a strength-based approach where awareness of trauma as a trigger helps to develop coping mechanisms.

Clients will be encouraged to follow a structured treatment program and participate in Relapse Prevention Group as well as outside meetings in the community.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

House of Charity was founded in 1952 by Brother de Paul (also known as Tom Kondrak) to provide food and shelter to the poor in Minneapolis. (We were incorporated in 1953.) Since our humble beginnings serving people at a 5-seat table and accommodating overnight guests on our floor, House of Charity has grown to address the root causes of long-term instability - including chemical dependency, mental illness, and lack of opportunity to gain life skills, attain quality education and secure employment.

Building on our over 60-year history of meeting critical needs in the community, House of Charity has been working to enhance the quality of its client services, as well as expand the breadth of its programs and increase the number of clients served. Our vision is to transform lives - one person at a time. With a variety of programs in housing, treatment, health and case management, and a Food Centre that provides free meals 365 days a year, House of Charity helps some of the most vulnerable people move off the streets and toward self-sufficiency.

In 2015, House of Charity purchased the Finance and Commerce property at 615 South 7th Street, Minneapolis. The property is adjacent to the House of Charity Food Centre located at 714 Park Avenue South. The partners in this purchase include the Twin Cities Community Land Bank and Community Housing Development Corporation.

The new development project includes a five story building with a new Food Centre space, expanded Day by Day Outpatient Recovery Program, and administrative offices on the first and second floors. Floors three through five will have 65 new Permanent Supportive Housing studio apartments for long-term homeless single adults. The building will include a large private deck on the 5th floor for the residents and off-sidewalk queueing space for Food Centre guests.

For this project, House of Charity has begun a capital campaign in 2015 to raise $23 million ($5 million in private capital to leverage $18 million in government funds). The goal is to begin construction in 2017.

Expenses $ 1,717,674. including grants of $ 0. Revenue $ 1,809,617.

The organization has an executive committee with authority to act on behalf of the governing board. The executive committee meets on a regular basis to plan board meetings, review governing documents and plan future activities. However, it is not their practice to act on behalf of the board. Therefore, it is not part of their practice that any meetings held be documented.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

The executive director, treasurer and finance committee will review the Form 990 prior to submission. A copy will be provided to the board prior to finalization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

The executive director's compensation is approved by the board of directors. The Minnesota Council of Nonprofits' compensation survey was used to determine reasonable compensation. The process is undertaken annually and follows the process noted in question 15 of Part VI. The executive director approves the compensation of the top financial person.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available to the public upon request.
